2015 Phelps Creek "Gorge Crest" Gewürztraminer, Columbia Gorge

The vintage was compressed, beginning and finishing earlier than typical. Gorge Crest is a beautiful, south sloped site located across the road from the iconic Celilo Vineyard, and just across the Columbia River from our estate. The Phelps Creek team farms the site. We utilize an Alsatian inspired technique of extending skin contact with the clusters prior to pressing in order to build texture. The cool climate cultivation results in beautiful acid balance with perfumed floral notes. Sandy and volcanic soils add spice and mineral elements. We retained about 0.7 % residual sugar
