2015 Phelps Creek "Lynette" Chardonnay, Columbia Gorge

The vintage was warm. The season progressed at a rapid pace with a generous span of positively hot weather mid-summer. Anticipation grew for the beginning of the earliest harvest in our 25 years of growing vines. However, our estate climate grants a large diurnal swing in temperatures preserving harvest acidity. Judicious picking decisions generated beautiful balance. Our volcanic soils add spice and mineral elements.

Batonage is utilized to build texture and creaminess.
